Hanlon's Team Plays a Draw With Cincinnati-New York and Boston Outplay Chicago and St. Louis Respectively. By whitewashing the Philadelphias y esterday the Pittsburgs reduced the lead of the Brooklyns to 26 points, as the Champions and the Cincinnatis played a draw at Washington Park. The Pitteburgs have tied the Brooklyns in games won, but have five more defeats. If Hanion's pitchers do not round into some sort of shape this week it is an even bet that the Superbas will lose the championship. The Pittaburgs are playing far and away the best ball in the League, and are enjoying a most phenomenal winning streak. The New Yorks played a double-header with the Chicagos yesterday, winning the first and making a draw of the second. The Chicagos incidentally yielded fourth place to the Bostons, who disposed of St. Louis. The results:

The Brooklyns were fortunate to escape defeat at the hands of the Cincinnatis at Washington Park yesterday. But for wildness on ington Park yesterday. But for wildness on the part of Pitcher Phillips of the Reds the Champions would have been beaten. Howell got a chance from Hanion to occupy the box and a chance from Hanion to occupy the box and for seven innings he did well enough to hold for seven innings he did well enough to hold the visitors in check. But in the eighth inning the was found for three runs, the result of Mc-Bride's single. Brailenstein's three-bagger, an out and a clean home run by Barrett. That tied the score and it was necessary to call upon McGinnity to finish the ninth inning in order to keep the Cincinnatis from taking away a ball. The Brooklyns profited by Phillips's bases on balls in the first inning and rolled up three runs. They made two more in the second inning on some free hitting, but after that Phillips had them completely at his mercy, allowing but three hits in the last seven innings. ins had them completely at his mercy, sing but three hits in the last seven innings batting of Barrett and McBride was a lead-leature. The New York tall-enders won a game and played a draw with the Chicagos at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon. The first game was an interesting contest up to the seventh inning, when the local players pounded Callahan for seven runs. In the eighth they scored five more runs. In the eighth they scored five more runs. In the eight innings Callahan pitched he was hit safely twenty-three times, for a total of twenty-seven bases. Singles by Bowerman and Seymour, a two-bagger by Van Hultren and a wild pitch in the ninth inning enabled the New Yorks to tie the score in the second game. Up to that time the visitors had the game well in hand. The contest was one of the best and quickest played on the Polo Grounds this season. Griffiths pitched good ball, especially when there were men on bases Carrick also pitched good ball. The Chicago players did considerable kicking. The scores.

GOLF. Second Day of Play at Lenox-Other

PITTSFIELD, Sept. 11 .- There was a very large entry in the preliminary round for the Lenox oup in the Lenox golf tournament today. Thirty-two of the forty-five starters returned cards. The day opened with heavy skies but at noon the sun came out and the afternoon was clear and fine. The feature of the contest was the continued brilliant playing of young Hoffman of New York, who yesterday won the Alexandre cup from a large field. He tied Grenville Kane for the best medal score of the day and during the tournament the two golfers will play off for the bronze medal and silver cup offered for the best medal score and silver cup offered for the best medal score in the preliminary round for the Lenox cup. H. R. Johnstone of the Chicago Golf Club made a remarkable exhibition of long driving in the competition. Mrs. Girard Foster, wife of the Secretary of the club, served tea this afternoon at the clubhouse. The attendance of the cottagers was even more brilliant than on the opening day. The programme for to-morrow is the first two rounds of match play for the Lenox and the eighteen-hole medal competition for the consolation cup offered by the Board of Managers. The scores:

MANCHESTER-BY-THE-SEA, Sept. 11.—Harry Vardon, the golf champion, met Joe Lloyd, the ex-open champion of the United States, on the links of the Essex Country Club to-day, defeating the latter in both morning and afternoon matches. In the afternoon play Vardon also broke the record of the old links, which was previously held by Lloyd, doing the two rounds in 73, this being one stroke better than the record. The day's play was merely preliminary to the real match which comes to-morrow. Vardon playing against the best ball of Lloyd and Dingwell, the club professional. The morning contest opened the handsome new eight-hole course. Vardon played a beautifully steady game, while Lloyd was off on his approaching. The "gallery" frequently applauded the fine work of the visitor. Summary:

COMMANDO GALLOPS AWAY WITH

THE RICH JUNIOR CHAMPION. eventful Opening Day of the Brooklyn Jockey Club's Autumn Meeting at Gravesend -Kinley Mack Takes the First Special

-Cock Robin's Brilliant Steeplechase. The autumn meeting of the Brooklyn Jockey Club opened yesterday at Gravesend. The principal magnet was the Junior Champion of $15,000, one of the richest and most important two-year-old stakes on the calendar. It brought out an exceptionally large field in view of the admitted superiority of the Keene combination. Trainer Rowe sent both Commando and Olympian to the post and they were played, coupled, from 2 to 8 to 1 to 3. Bellario next in demand receded from 6 to 1 to 8 to 1, but was heavily supported for "place and show money." Commando performed an impromptu high-school act in the parade and also cut up some jinks at the post. This made the others restive, but the starter got them away in good order after a few attempts. Alard Scheck showed in front for a few strides. but when they settled down to actual racing Olympian, Bellario and Commando singled themselves out. Turning out of the backstretch Commando galloped over his field and won with the greatest ease by a length from Bellario, who stood a punishing drive gamely and took the place by a head from the Keene second string. Had Spencer ridden Commando out the big colt might have further signalized his triumph by equalling or eclipsing the track record, but as it was he scored the fastest time yet made in the stake and got away with his $10,000 share of the spoils without turning

The First Special for three-year-olds and upward over the Brooklyn Handicap course threatened to fall flat when the small field of five was reduced by the withdrawal of Martimas and Advance Guard. Visitors were satisfied, however, when such favorites as Imp. Rinley Mack and McMeekin accepted the issue, imp looked ber best and was promptly played down from 6 to 5 to odds on. Rinley Mack receded from 8 to 5 to it to 5 and McMeekin was in quiet demand at 4 to 1. Kinley Mack showed unwonted speed from the barrier, but McCue at once steadied him and Imp went out in her favorite position of pacemaker. Odom let her choose her own gait and as the others apparently had waiting orders the fractional times were slow. Coulag round the bend to the etarting point, two furlongs from the finish, McMeekin made his bid with a rush and raced the old mare out of her stride. Then Kinley Mack came along, and after a drive all the way past the stands succeeded in wearing down W. M. Barrick's game three-year-old and beating him a head. Impetried up under pressure and finished four lengths behind McMeekin. She pulled up fairly sound on her game leg, however, and will probably reward her loyal followers later on. Her defeat was a big disappointment to her trainer and part owner, Charles Brossman, who now realizes too late that in nursing her foot he allowed her to go a shade off edge.

Jocky Spencer had a close call in the highweight handicap for all ages, which started the ball rolling. He accepted the mount on St Finnan and the gelding fell with him on the turn out of the backstretch. The 'leeman' limped back to the paddock nursing a bruised leg, but recovered soon enough to ride a masterly race on Commando, Meehanus ruled favorite for the opening dash, but the lightweights slipped him at flagfall and he had to be content with second honors, four lengths behind Montanic and a head in front of Gold Or. The boys behaved badly at the barrier and the three chief offenders, Burns, Turner and Henry, incurred fines of $25 each. Sand Hook, th at one stage in the second mile, when he thied to stop until Brazil persuaded him that it would be more comfortable to go on. Then he drew away again and won eased up, by ten lengths from the favorite, Perion.

Gertrude Elliott at 15 to 1 bowled over a lot of good things in the fifth race. She was entered to be sold for $1,000 and Fred Burlew, who ran second with Animosity, secured the Tenny filly for $1,400. In Shot scored for the Tenny filly for $1,400. In Shot scored for the talent in the sixth race and Mike Clancy bid Owner Hildreth to a standstill, taking the filly away to his barn at an advance of $500 over her entered price of $1,200.

The closing race was marred by an unfortunate incident for which no one can be blamed. S. C. Hildreth had two engaged, Trillo and Maximo Gomez. The latter was in no shape to race and Hildreth sent up to have him scratched. The messenger took out the other one instead and Hildreth sent up to have him scratched. The messenger took out the other appeal to the stewards. It was too late, however, and Maximo Gomez, after being watered and fed, was pulled out. Unfortunately the rank and file knew nothing of this and made the Victory gelding favorite. He could barely raise a gailop and ran last all the way, the race going to Candle Black, who spreadeagled his raise a gallop and ran last all the way, the race going to Candle Black, who spreadeagled his field and won by six lengths from Flaunt. Slack, who rode Oneck Queen into fourth position, lodged a complaint of foul riding against Burna on Flaunt, but the placing was allowed to stand. The entry of Maximo Gomez is ordered refused until he is in condition to race. Summary:

It was a pretty even break between jockeys at Gravesend yesterday. Turner, Bullman, Spencer, McCue, O'Connor and Shaw each riding a winner, Bullman had a shade the best of it in the all-round percentage by also landing three place horses and a third.

Fanny Dillard Winson Exciting Six-Heat Race

CONNOR GOES A MILE AT THE EMPIRE CITY TRACK IN 9:03 1-4.

-Only Trotting Contest Captured by Major Greer-Hontas Crooke Pulls a Road Wagon in 2:12 - Coney Shows His Speed. The second day of the Grand Circuit meeting at the Empire City track was ushered in with remarkably fast racing and it was kept up until the last event on the card had been decided. Before the races were called the noted California horseman, Tom Keating, drove on the track with James Butler's great pacer, Coney, hooked to a one-man road wagon. Without a pacemaker or any special preparation he sent the fast sidewheeler a mile in 2.02%.

were no regularly appointed Judges in the stand.

It is probable that on Friday Coney will be driven an exhibition mile. Coney's record

The time will not constitute a record, as there is 2:02%, made at Hartford last week. The track was in good shape and every event on the card was made interesting, not only on account of the time, but because of the driving finishes. The 2:00 pace was as stubbornly contested as any event on the big track this season. It required six heats to decide it and until the sixth heat was finished the result was in doubt. Before the first heat Harry O. was sold in the auctions at $100; Will Leyburn. $35; Fanny Dillard, $30; Sphinx S., $25, and Red Seal, Sidney Pointer and Flirt, $5 each. After Harry O. had won the first two heats he was a strong favorite against the field. In the first heat the bay mare Flirt was the contending horse down the homestretch and she made it look blue for the favorite from the draw gate to the wire. Both Bogash and Rennick used their whips freely, Harry O. landing under the wire by a sea nt neck in advance. In the second heat Will Leyburn and Sydney Pointer made things uncomfortable down the stretch for Harry O., the three going under the wire with not more than half a length between them. The time of the two heats, 2:06% and 2:06, made the backers of Harry O. feel a trifle uncertain as to his ability to repeat in anything near that time, and some of them began to "hedge," In the third heat Harry O. led to the turn into the backstretch, when Sydney Pointer slipped to the front and held that position to the distance pole. He was unable, however, to keep pace with Fanny Dillard, when Snow called upon the latter. Fanny showed that she had speed enough in reserve to take the lead. Bogash tried hard with Harry O, and snatched second place from Pointer, but had only reached Fanny Dilard's neck when they went under the wire.

Dilard also won the fourth heat in a whipping finish, with Will Leyburn and Sidney Pointer as the contending horses. The favorite finished away back. Harry O, was sent for the fifth heat. Will Leyburn held a good lead to the three-quarters, with Fanny Dillard second. Joing around the upper turn Bogash made his drive with Harry O, flashing out from the bunch and going to second place. Down the stretch he shook the favorite up in a great effort to reach the wire first. Many in the crowd mistook Leyburn for Fanny Dillard and shouted: "Dillard, Dillard wins!" Leyburn won the heat by a nose from Harry O, in 2:09. In this heat Kelly, the driver of Sidney Pointer, Jogged to the wire with one side of his sulky running on the axie. He ran into Snow on the turn into the stretch and his wheel collapsed. The judges decided that it was an unavoidable accident and did not distance him.

For the sixth heat there were only three starters. The finish was exciting. They made a whipping drive to the wire. Dillard pushing her nose in front just in time to win the race. The heat was in 2:00. It was the fastest sixheat race of the season for the class, and every winner in the race reduced their records. Had the 2:05 pace been of the regular three-in-five-heat character it would have required many heats to decide it. The event ended with three heats, every one being a race. In the pools Frank Bogash sold favorite before the start at $60 to $100 for the field, in which were connor, Royal R. Sheldon and Baby Ruth. In the first heat they went to the quarter in 0:31%, and the half in 1:01%. Connor slipped to the front at the three-quarter pole and heid the advantage to the wire, with Sheldon and Bogash being hard driven. The time was $100.00 to the field to the feel to the field to the feel to the second heat resuited in a most exciting this. Frank Rogash carried the fi reserve to take the lead. Bogash tried hard with Harry O, and snatched second place from Bogash 2003.

The second heat resulted in a most exciting finish. Frank Bogash carried the field to the quarter in 0.32 and to the half in 1.02%. He held the lead to the head of the stretch, when both Sheldon and Connor set sail for him. It was a wonderful drive to the wire. Horses and men strained every nerve for supremacy. The crowd shouted that Bogash led, then it would be Sheldon and then Connor. They and men strained every nerve for supremacy. The crowd shouted that Bogash led, then it would be Sheldon and then Connor. They passed the distance pole wire abreast. Near the wire it looked as though there would be a dead heat between the three. No one except the didges directly over the wire could tell which indges directly over the wire could tell which horse was ahead. The heat went to Royal R. Sheldon by a nose: Frank Bogash, second: Conner, third, with Baby Ruth three or four lengths in the rear Malor Greer was favorite in the 2:30 tret at $50 to $30 for the field. He won in straight heats, but had to be driven hard each time. Only four contestants appeared for the first heat of the wagen pace. Rontas Crocke, C. K. G. Billings's roadster, had no trouble in winning by a length. Silvernaker was second, Quadriga third and Watcheye was distanced. Summaries:

On the grounds are a clubhouse, an old-fashioned inn, golf links and eighty-five box stalls, fitted up with every modern convenience, including bathrooms for trainers. Several of the Long Branch hotels and clubs have already offered to donate cups and purses, and the club expects to get all the fast horses to compete in the events. The accommodations are all that could be desired and horses can be conveyed from New York directly to the park in two hours. The Central Railroad of New Jersey will build a station at the park gates. with Dr. H. H. Kane chairman; W. E. Hildreth.

FALTIMORE, Sept. 11 .- The feature of to-day's racing at Prospect Park was an attempt to play a "ringer" in the first race. The horse was entered as Kenmore, owned by C. E. Ross of Rochtered as Kenmore, owned by C. E. Ross of Rochester, N. Y., and driven by Pierce. His backers could not get much money down on the first heat and Pierce would not let him to the front. In the second heat, however, he won in hollow style. Some one notified the judges and they made an investigation. Kenmore turned out to be a horse that raced recently at Westfield, Mass., under the name of Raegan. The horse and driver were expelled and all bets on the race declared off. Pierce immediately took his horse and disappeared when he learned that there is a law against "ringing" in this State, the punishment being a $500 fine and six months imprisonment.

AN ENGLISH CHALLENGE EXPECTED. A British Yacht May Be Contender for Seawanhaka Chailenge Cup.

The Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club, holder of the Seawanhaka challenge cup, is expecting a challenge from England. It is from the Island Sailing Club, and the yachtsman named is Lone Currie. The St. Lawrence Club has been notifled by cablegram, and although two challenges, one from the White Pear Club and the other from the Bridgeport Club, have been received, action will not be taken until the English defi has been received. The Royal St. Lawrence Club has been anxious that a foreign club should challenge, and now that one is on its way it will probably be accepted. Speaking of this challenge, the latest number of the London Yachtsman says: and now that one is on its way it will probably be accepted. Speaking of this challenge, the latest number of the London Yachisman says:

It is to be hoped that the wish of the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club to receive a British challenge for the Seawanhaka cup will not remain ungratified. The cup is naturally more attractive for American clubs than any others, but it, like the America's Cup, was not intended to become merely a bone of contention between the clubs of Canada and the States. The States have now had a very fair innings at trying to win it back, and their clubs cannot complain if preference be given this time to a "foreign" club. It will be remembered that a few years ago the conditions of the deed of gift were altered by a proviso to the effect that no challenge could be considered for another match until thirty days had elapsed from the date of the last match actually decided. This was done for the express purpose of preventing any challenge from immediately issuing a new challenge after his defeat, and so forestailing all other clubs, he being, of course, in the best position to plant his challenge first.

Since we received the cablegram from the Royal. St Lawrence Y. C., to which reference was made last week, we have received a letter confirming it, and stating it at the members feel very strongly that it would be a great benefit to small yachting in their waters if a cirtish club or designer who could win that cup. It is, in its way, just as important a trophy as the America's Cup, for, though it lacks years, its brief history has been a very brilliant one for its present holders. During the last two seasons our small classes have been immensely "improved" in speed, and we may take it that a good British small class designer would now send out a very difficult oratifor the Canadians to tackle, but she would assuredly meet a defender worthy of her mettle, and men thoroughly masters of the art of satting her. In the event of the British club winning the tophy, the Rudos attaching to subsequent ma in Sailing Mineola in Saturday's Race. The real reason why the Mineola overstood the outer mark in the race for the Postley cup at Larchmont on Saturday came to light yesterday. It was supposed that Capt. Wringe and Capt. Parker lost sight of the mark in their efforts to outsail each other on the Mineola and Rainbow respectively. The mistake probably cost the Mineola the race, as she was leading quence. The error, Mr. Belmont says, was his, and not that of Skipper Wringe. The sailing instructhat of Skipper Wringe. The sailing instructions for the race mentioned a dory and a white ball, which everybody on the Mincola had fully in sight, but which Mr. Belmont, who had an old chart of the Larchmont course, believed was not the mark, but a buoy of an inside course.

Skipper Wringe Not to Blame for the Mistake

He was going by the chart he had, and which gave the outer mark as a white spar buoy.
This white spar buoy had been removed by the Government, and hence the Mincola was hunting for something which did not exist, and the Rainbow and some others of the fleet, including the Colonia, were following the lead of the Mincola, seemingly certain that she was going right.
